PLAY RINGS AROUND MACKS

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—Playing with the same sensational speed that marked their rush from last place to the position of pennant winners in the National League, the Boston Braves crushed the Philadelphia Athletics here today in the first game of the world's series by a score of 7 runs to 1. Although the newly constructed baseball machine of "Miracle Man" Scullery wobbled once or twice, it never left the track and under the guiding hand of Pitcher Rudolph crashed through Connie Mack's championship Athletics, scattering dismay and disappointment in its trail.

By sharp, quick and timely hitting the Braves piled up an offensive that, coupled with Rudolph's striking box work and the general demoralization of the Athletics, was too much for the Philadelphia club at any time.

The finishing touch of the assembling of spectators was added to the picture when the Royal Rooters, Boston's organized cheering corps, marched into the park, led by their own band and waving red and blue pennants with the word "Braves" and an Indian head boldly outlined on the pennant. They even carried the idea further, for several of the leaders wore full Indian regalia, including feathered headdresses and tomahawks. The battle song, "Tessie," was sung repeatedly, and the 300 members of the corps cheered each telling Boston hit or play and encouraged the team in the crucial periods during the second and seventh innings when Rudolph wavered for a moment under the strain. When the game ended the Royal Rooters paraded around the field, singing and snake dancing. They finally wound up in front of the Boston bench, cheering the

EFFICIENT CITY MANAGERS WOULD SAVE
MILIONS OF DOLLARS, SAYS L. E. CURTIS

Sees Advantages if Expert Business Methods
Were Applied to Municipal Corporations

That the city manager plan, as adopted by several American cities, is merely the application to municipal corporations of the usual form of business administration used by private corporations, was the keynote of an address on the new system given yesterday by Leonard E. Curtis before the meeting of the Civic League in the council chambers in the city hall. Mr. Curtis, who is especially interested in the plan, thoroughly discussed it, both theoretically and practically, and especially how it would apply in Colorado Springs.

FLANKING MOVE
BY GERMANS ON
WEST IS FAILURE

ON THE BATTLE FRONT
Paris, Oct. 9.—The sharp offensive movement of the Germans on the western wing of the allies at the Belgian frontier evidently has failed in its object of breaking the French and British line.

The long extension of the battle line, which now has gone beyond the four rivers—Scarpe, Somme, Oise and Aisne—was initiated by the allies in an endeavor to find a solution of the problem of ousting the Germans from their strong positions in northeastern France.

In these positions the Germans had been besieged nearly a month, since the conclusion of the bloody battle of the Marne, a frontal attack being considered inexpedient by the allies. The present front is within 44 miles of Antwerp, where the Belgians have offered such heroic resistance to the bombardment of the heavy German artillery. Belgian officers who have arrived here from Antwerp say that the Belgians themselves destroyed Fort Wavrin and Wavre-St. Catherine.

Rhine Bombed Again.
Further down toward the center of the line the severest fighting continued today at Roer, where the allies took a large number of prisoners. Rhine again was subjected to a short bombardment.

On the eastern wing the fighting is still very fierce around St. Mihiel, with many night attacks. The Germans are extremely clever in constructing blind trenches, against which the allies' fire is often directed, when the Germans actually are posted some distance away in other trenches, from which they can pour in an enfiladed fire.

There are so many limitations put on a city government by the United States and state constitutions that a large number of the duties of city officials are defined. This substitution of party iron rule and division of authority always brings inefficiency. There is no great initiative in municipal office. The officer has two desires—to get elected and draw his pay.

CARLSON WON'T MEET

Declines Challenge to Talk on State Issues; Moans
Hitting the Rail

Special to The Gazette.
LAMAR, Colo., Oct. 9.—The Progressive campaigner struck the trail of the Republican speakers on today's trip, and thereby began a tour. The Republicans held a start meeting at 7 A. M. at 1 o'clock and the Progressives whirled into town shortly afterward. Seeing an opportunity, E. P. Costigan, Progressive candidate for governor, challenged George Carlson, Republican gubernatorial candidate, for a joint debate on state issues to be held at 3 o'clock. Costigan's challenge was carried by Allison Stocker, who accompanied the G. O. P. party, but he brought back word that Carlson would not agree to the plan. The merchants of Las Animas agreed to close their stores and to get up a big crowd if the debate could be arranged.

The Progressives spoke at Las Animas, Hastings, McClave, Wiley and Lamar, and met the same enthusiasm and earnestness as in yesterday's schedule of meetings.

Tomorrow the party will split up. Merle Vincent, candidate for attorney general, going into Baca county, and the others, Costigan, Mrs. Riddle and P. H. Troutman, continuing to the state line. The principal meeting today will be held at Holly.

63,000 ECCLESIASTICS
SERVING WITH ARMIES

ROME, Oct. 9.—According to reports received at the Vatican more than 63,000 ecclesiastics are now serving in different capacities with the armies in the field, especially with the Belgian, French and Austrian forces. Most of these clergymen are engaged in hospital work. They include seven bishops and 19 other prelates.

ANTWERP, Oct. 10.—(Via London, 6 a. m., Saturday)—It is reported that the German infantry has penetrated into the suburbs through a breach in Fort Berchem. The bombardment has temporarily stopped.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—(3 a. m., Saturday)—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Reuter Telegram company says that 32 German merchant ships, including a large number of steamers, have been blown up in the port of Antwerp.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Belgium again is the center of military interest, for not only is her army battling for its life behind the fortresses of Antwerp, but the long battle line in France has struggled northward until it has crossed her frontier at Valenciennes, and may yet join the beleaguered Belgians.

According to a German report, received by wireless from Berlin this evening, railway and telegraphic communication with Antwerp is interrupted. It was reported also that the king of the Belgians had been slightly wounded.

The severing of communication had been expected, for the Germans had been directing their attacks at points of ingress to and egress from the city, and at the same time dropping shells into the town itself.

A portion of the city is reported to have been destroyed. The 49-centimeter guns made short work of the great Brielmont forts, and lesser guns now are engaged in destroying the city, which, under the provisions of The Hague convention, was given due notice before the bombardment began.

The extent of the damage done in the city is not known, for the only accounts available concerning the bombardment are from persons who watched it from a distance. That the fighting is desperate, there can be no doubt, for the Belgian army, driven from the first line of forts, took up good positions behind the second line, prepared to offer desperate opposition to the advance of the besiegers.

ZEPPELINS ADD TERROR
TO THE DEADLY WORK
The defenders, however, even in their well-protected intrenchments, are said to be unable to avoid the shell fire, which is described as terrific, and which is said to fall always in the right spot. The Zeppelin airships, too, have played their part in the fray, and bombs from them add to the terror. It is reported that one of these airships was brought down last night, but the statement originated from a person who said he saw it from a distance.

The German advance through the gap which they had opened in the southwestern section of the line of forts has been likened to a prairie fire, which devoured every village and building in its path. The Germans also have forced three passages of the river Scheldt between Ghent and Termonde, their object being to prevent the Belgian army from breaking through and escaping by the narrow strip of Belgian territory between the Scheldt and that portion of Holland which stretches along the coast west of the estuary.

WAR ON ENGLAND BEGINS WITH THE FALL OF ANTWERP

ROME, Oct. 9.—The war against Great Britain, according to the German newspapers received here, will commence at the end of October after Antwerp has fallen.

Belgium will become the base of operations against Great Britain, the newspapers say. They add that Admiral von Tirpitz, the minister of the navy, who is now at general headquarters with Empress and William, has announced that he will go aboard the flagship of the German fleet and direct the operations of the navy.

KING ALBERT REPORTED TO HAVE LEFT THE CITY
King Albert is believed to be among those who have left Antwerp. An unconfirmed report says the queen and members of the royal family have gone to Ostend. The king's reported departure to Ostend, near the Dutch frontier, would, it is explained, be consistent with the report that the Ger-

WAR SUMMARY

The war chancelleries of the allies and the Germans have not seen fit to lift the curtain of secrecy high enough for the public to obtain an insight into the conditions which prevail along the battle line in France.

That is all. From the British and Germans came nothing. Of the situation in the east, the Austrian general staff, in a dispatch coming by way of Berlin, reported a breakup of the Russian invasion in Hungary, and said that the Russian emperor's forces had been cleared from a portion of the Carpathians.

The Russians, in their turn, asserted that near the East Prussian frontier, in "man Dolud, they had, all promising the Germans, and at several points had gained successes over them.

While one morning newspaper in London has been informed on "good authority" that Antwerp has fallen, neither the British official press bureau nor the Belgian minister are able to confirm the report. The last advices from Belgium had the Germans still hammering away with their artillery against Antwerp. One dispatch said 200 big German guns were in operation there. Other advices reported thousands of refugees arriving in that city.

A Berlin dispatch says that King Albert of Belgium, who has been reported to have left Antwerp at the head of a portion of his troops, has been slightly wounded.

British aeroplanes again have visited Dusseldorf, Germany. A British official report says an aerial squadron succeeded in blowing up a Zeppelin airship shed in Dusseldorf and destroying a dirigible balloon in it. The three aviators engaged in the raid escaped, but lost their machines.

Austria has temporarily lifted the customs duties on corn, flour and vegetables.

Belgium has protested to the Washington government against Germany's alleged action in commandeering all food supplies in Brussels and reducing the native population to famine.

It is believed in Washington that Captain Le Vert Coleman, who has been in Europe with the American relief commission, will be called upon by the war department to explain statements attributed to him in an interview in New York concerning the German army's fighting abilities and commissariat and alleged atrocities committed by the German troops.

KARLSRUHE COILED AT PORTO RICO FEW DAYS AGO

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—As late as a few days before October 4, the German cruiser Karlsruhe, which unconfirmed reports have said had been sunk or disabled by British warships, was coaling in San Juan, Porto Rico, according to statements made to passengers on the Brazilian ship Minas Geraes, which arrived here today from South American ports. The Minas Geraes put in at San Juan on October 7 on her voyage north. The Karlsruhe had taken on coal there a few days previous, the ship was reported to be in the harbor.

Game by Hammering Chief
Bender Out of Box
PLAY RINGS AROUND MACKS

Whirlwind Victory, Surprise to Fans; Betting Odds
Switch to Boston

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—Playing with the same sensational speed that marked their rush from last place to the position of pennant winners in the National League, the Boston Braves crushed the Philadelphia Athletics here today in the first game of the world's series by a score of 7 runs to 1. Although the newly constructed baseball machine of "Miracle Man" Stallings wobbled twice or twice, it never left the track and under the guiding hand of Pitcher Rudolph crushed Connie Mack's championship Athletics, scattering dismay and disappointment in its trail.

The victory over the 2 to 1 American league favorites was well won, no lucky breaks or baseball flukes figuring in the defeat of the famous Mackmen. By sharp, heavy and timely hitting the Braves piled up an offensive lead, which, coupled with Rudolph's sterling box work and the general defense of his team mates, left no opening through which the Philadelphia club's attack could penetrate.

The Braves, who had to score, putting two runs across in the second inning. Whitted walked and scored on Gowdy's double, who in turn came on Maranville's drive to left center. The Athletics' only back with a run in their half of the game came when McInnis's pass and Ford on Strunk's single, which Young let fly through his legs for a base hit in the fifth Gowdy tried to short and came home on Maranville's short hit over McInnis' back. As he clinched the game in the next inning, scoring three runs on a single, Connolly passed Whitted's triple to right and Schmidt's single, which was too hot for Barry to hold.

Just to show that they could hit either pitcher beside Bender, the Braves added another off Wyckoff in the eighth when Schmidt singled, went to third on Gowdy's one-bar, slash and stole home as Maranville fanned.

Weather conditions were ideal for a play, the diamond and outfield being dry and fast while a warm sun shone overhead from a fleecy sky.

ROYAL ROOTERS AS "BRAVES" CHEER THEIR TEAM

The finishing touches of the assembling of spectators was added to the picture when the Royal Rooters, Boston's organized rooting corps, marched into the park headed by their own band and waving red and blue pennants with the word "Braves" and in Indian head, boldly outlined on the same. They even carried the idea further, for several of the leaders wore full Indian regalia, including feathered headdresses and tomahawks. The battle song, "Tessie," was sung repeatedly, and the 300 members of the corps cheered each fellow Boston hit or play and encouraged the team in the crucial periods during the second and seventh innings, when Rudolph wavered for a moment under the strain. When the game ended the Royal Rooters paraded around the field, singing and snake dancing. They finally wound up in front of the Boston bench, cheering the

FLANKING MOVE BY GERMANS ON WEST IS FAILURE

LES' LINES IMPENETRABLE TO ENEMY

Cannonading Along Front Has Diminished Somewhat in Last Few Days

ON THE BATTLE FRONT (Via Paris, Oct. 9).—The sharp offensive movement of the Germans on the western wing of the allies at the Belgian frontier evidently has failed in its object of bending or breaking the French and British line.

The long extension of the battle line, which now has gone beyond the four rivers—Sambre, Somme, Oise and Aisne—was initiated by the allies in an endeavor to find a solution of the problem of muzzling the Germans from their strategic positions in northeastern France.

In these positions the Germans had been besieged nearly a month, since the conclusion of the bloody battle of the Marne, a frontal attack being considered inexpedient by the allies. The present front is within 33 miles of Antwerp, where the Belgians have offered such heroic resistance to the bombardment of the heavy German artillery. Belgian officers who have arrived here from Antwerp say that the Belgians, themselves, destroyed Forts Waelhem and Wavre-St. Catherine.

Rheims Bombarded Again.

Further down toward the center of the line the severest fighting continued today at Reims, where the allies took a large number of prisoners. Rheims again was subjected to a short bombardment.

In other parts of the center of the opposition forces both sides remain constantly alert. The cannonade has diminished in intensity and the allied troops occupying the trenches are becoming thoroughly accustomed to the situation. Many of them spend the intervals between the spells of rifle firing reading newspapers to their comrades beneath the bombproof shelters.

The allied artillerymen seem indefatigable, replying with vigor whenever a German cannon opens fire. The men throw themselves on the ground when they heard the peculiar tearing noise of the enemy's shell, and consequently the casualties in this section are few. At night everybody is at high tension, and few noises are heard.

Lanterns for Signal.

An occasional dull signal lamp or a lantern, with its light turned away from the German lines, indicates the number of a brigade or a division occupying the position, and permits the hearing of a dispatch or a rider on a motorcycle to find his way along the road to the commanding officers. All around the air is full of dust and sand thrown up by shell splinters, while the odor from the explosives is intense.

The French and Germans still generally utilize bugle calls, and when these are heard, searchlights immediately are flashed out. The British commands, however, are whispered along the trenches from mouth to mouth, so that even in the silence of the night no sound reaches the ears of the Germans in their trenches, no so far away, and no indication is given of any proposed movement or attack until it is in full swing.

On the eastern wing the fighting is still very fierce around St. Mihiel, with many night attacks. The Germans are extremely clever in constructing blind trenches, against which the allies' fire is often directed, while the Germans actually are posted some distances away in other trenches, from which they can pour in an enfiladed fire.

CARLSON WON'T MEET COSTIGAN IN DEBATE

Declines Challenge to Talk on State Issues; Moores Hitting the Ball

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

LAMAR, Colo., Oct. 9.—The Progressive campaigners struck the trail of the Republican speakers on today's trip, and thereby hang a tale. The Republicans held a street meeting at Lamar at 1 o'clock, and the Progressives whirled into town shortly afterward. Seeing an opportunity, E. P. Costigan, Progressive candidate for governor, challenged George Carlson, Republican gubernatorial candidate, to a joint debate on state issues, to be held at 3 o'clock. Costigan's challenge was carried by Allison Stocker, who accompanies the G. O. P. party, but he brought back word that Carlson would not agree to the plan. The merchants of Lamar agreed to close their stores and to get up a big crowd if the debate could be arranged. The Progressives and Republicans both have speakers in this locality, and there is much political enthusiasm. Today the Progressives spoke at Lamar, and met the same enthusiasm and earnestness as in yesterday's schedule of meetings.

Tomorrow the party will split up. Merle D. Vincent, candidate for attorney general, going into Baca county, and the others, Costigan, Mrs. Riddle and P. H. Troutman, continuing to the state line. The principal meeting today will be held at Holly.

69,000 ECCLESIASTICS SERVING WITH ARMIES

ROME, Oct. 9.—According to reports received at the Vatican more than 69,000 ecclesiastics are now serving in different capacities with the armies in the field, especially with the Belgian, French and Austrian forces. Most of these clergymen are engaged in hospital work. They include seven bishops and 19 other prelates.

AGED MAN STRUCK AND KILLED BY STREET CAR

J. F. Henney of Colorado City Meets Death in Accident at Colorado Avenue and Fifth Street

Struck by an eastbound Colorado Springs & Interurban work car, at Fifth street and Colorado avenue, Colorado City, J. F. Henney, aged 81, of Colorado City, met almost instant death at 2:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It is not known whether he was attempting to board the work car, thinking it was for passengers, or whether he tried to cross the street in front of it. Passenger cars stop at Fifth street in Colorado City, and it is believed that he expected this car to stop.

The lower part of Mr. Henney's body was crushed, but the chest and head were not injured. The body was taken in charge by Coroner Edwin T. Reyle.

Mr. Henney was the father of Mrs. Bert Howard, whose husband recently purchased the Colorado City Independent. The Howards and Mr. Henney came here from Pratt, Kan. six weeks ago. Mr. Henney was making his home with his daughter. He has a daughter, Mrs. Reinehard, living in Kansas City, Mo., and a son, Hugh Henney, at Wichita, Kan.

CONSUL DIEDERICH HAD NARROW ESCAPE

American Representative Tells of His Experiences in City of Antwerp

LONDON, Oct. 10 (Saturday).—Henry W. Diederich, American consul general at Antwerp, who escaped from that city with his family in an automobile, gave the following account of the bombardment to the Ghent correspondent of the Chronicle:

"For days we heard the sound of heavy gun fire and were told of the fall, one after another, of outer forts. It soon became apparent that nothing could avail against the great German cannon, and in conjunction with other neutrals, we endeavored to mediate with the Germans to spare, at any rate, some of the most valuable buildings of world-wide interest, but the negotiations failed to lead to a successful result.

"For God's Sake Clear Out."

"I had intended to remain in Antwerp throughout the bombardment. I was told, however, for God's sake clear out of the city, as its destruction is inevitable, but I did not realize until almost too late the horror which was coming.

"At 11 o'clock at night we were going to bed when we were aroused by frightful noises, reminding us of the previous visits of the Zeppelins. Soon we realized that the bombardment had commenced and then I had the most horrible experience of my life.

"I went with my family to the basement and we crouched there all night. Shells falling every few minutes, some with a dreadful whistling sound, followed by a thunder claps and the collapse of some building.

Home Imperiled by Shells.

"Opposite the consulate is the home for old people, the front of which was torn out by a shell and the debris scattered over my house. More debris fell on the two-story building adjoining, crumbling it up entirely and setting it on fire. After this another shell blew out the facade of a house lower down our street.

"As dawn came we were worried out and my family was collapsed from fright and strain, so we decided to endeavor to leave the city. I succeeded in communicating with my chauffeur and got a car, but did not know where to go, being left with nothing but what we had on us, and exposed every moment to exploding shells.

Four Hours Crossing Bridge.

"With my wife, daughter, two servants and a refugee's child, I crossed the pontoon bridge over the Scheldt. It took us four hours to do this, the streets being a seething mass of every kind of vehicle and dense crowds of fugitives. The scene was indescribably dreadful, everybody being moved by the same desire to get away from the awful horror.

"After crossing the Scheldt, we heard that the bridge was destroyed by a shell, thus bottling up the inhabitants.

ONLY HOPE OF BESIEGED CITY DEPENDS ON ALLIES

How long the Belgians can hold out against this attack from two sides, which has continued since Wednesday night, no one offers to conjecture. The Belgians hope, however, that their field army can withstand the Germans until the allied armies, advancing from the south, force the Germans to withdraw.

Meantime, there is great anxiety regarding the non-combatants remaining in Antwerp. Thousands of refugees from the city and surrounding towns are arriving in Holland and England. Already there are half a million Belgians in Holland, and 2,000 or 3,000 are arriving daily in England, coming by way of Ostend. Many of these are penniless and dependent on the charity of the peoples of the countries to which they are fleeing. Some wounded also are arriving in England.

PATTERSON COMES ON STATE STUMPING TOUR

The Democratic party will open its fall campaign in Colorado Springs tonight with an address at Temple theater by the party's candidate for governor, Thomas M. Patterson, and other members of the state ticket, as well as some of the local candidates.

This will be the first of a series of Democratic meetings here. Others will be held when Secretary of State Bryan and Secretary of the Interior Lane make addresses here. The Republican party will start its campaign locally within a week or 10 days.

ALLIES RUSH NORTH TO HELP BELGIANS DEFEND ANTWERP

Fall of City Imminent; Germans Pour Deadly Fire-Into Town, Which Has Become Veritable Inferno; Famous Buildings Destroyed

Kaiser's 16-Inch Guns Batter Down Great Fortifications and Invaders Roll Into Breach Like Huge Prairie Fire, While Zeppelins Rain Terror From the Clouds Upon Panic-Stricken Population

ANTWERP, Oct. 10.—(Via London, 6 a. m., Saturday) It is reported that the German infantry has penetrated into the suburbs through a breach in Fort Berchem. The bombardment has temporarily stopped.

LONDON, Oct. 10. (3 a. m., Saturday)—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Reuter Telegram company says that 32 German merchant ships, including a large number of steamers, have been blown up in the port of Antwerp.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Belgium again is the center of military interest, for not only is her army battling for its life behind the fortresses of Antwerp, but the long battle line in France has struggled northward until it has crossed her frontier at Arras, and may yet join the beleaguered Belgians.

According to a German report, received by wireless from Berlin this evening, railway and telegraphic communication with Antwerp is interrupted. It was reported also that the king of the Belgians had been slightly wounded.

The severing of communications had been expected, for the Germans had been directing their attacks at points of ingress to and egress from the city, and at the same time dropping shells into the town itself.

A portion of the city is reported to have been destroyed. The 42-centimeter guns made short work of the great Brialmont forts, and lesser guns now are engaged in destroying the city, which, under the provisions of The Hague convention, was given due notice before the bombardment began.

The extent of the damage done in the city is not known, for the only accounts available concerning the bombardment are from persons who watched it from a distance. That the fighting is desperate, there can be no doubt, for the Belgian army, driven from the first line of forts, took up good positions behind the second line, prepared to offer desperate opposition to the advance of the besiegers.

ZEPPELINS ADD TERROR TO THE DEADLY WORK

The defenders, however, even in their well-protected intrenchments, are said to be unable to avoid the shell-fire, which is described as terrific, and which is said to fall always in the right spot. The Zeppelin attacks, too, have played their part in the fray, and bombs from them add to the terror. It is reported that one of these airships was brought down last night, but the statement originated from a person who said he saw it from a distance.

The German advance through the gap which they had opened in the southeastern section of the line of forts has been likened to a prairie fire, which devoured every village and building in its path. The Germans also have forced three passages of the river Scheldt between Ghent and Tervuren, their object being to prevent the Belgian army from breaking through and escaping by the narrow strip of Belgian territory between the Scheldt and the portion of Holland which stretches along the coast west of the estuary.

On the battle in France the German and French reports agree there has been no change in the situation, although the French claim to have made some progress near St. Mihiel and in the Argonne. It is, however, on the other wing, in northwestern France and across the Belgian border, that interest centers. Here a battle is in progress on a line from Cassigny northward through Rove, Bray-sur-Somme, Arras and Lens, while the cavalry is operating north of Lille. Thus the main armies of the allies are facing eastward and the Germans are facing westward.

WAR ON ENGLAND BEGINS WITH THE FALL OF ANTWERP

ROME, Oct. 9.—The war against Great Britain, according to the German newspapers received here, will commence at the end of October after Antwerp has fallen.

Belgium will become the base of operations against Great Britain, the newspapers say. They add that Admiral von Tirpitz, the minister of the navy, who is now at general headquarters with Emperor William, has announced that he will go aboard the flagship of the German fleet and direct the operations of the navy.

WAR SUMMARY

The war chancelleries of the allies and the Germans have not seen fit to lift the curtain of secrecy high enough for the public to obtain an insight into the conditions which prevail along the battle line in France.

"There is nothing to report," the French war office says, "except that there has been a lively engagement in the region of Roye, where in the last two days we have captured 1,600 prisoners."

That is all. From the British and Germans came nothing.

Of the situation in the east, the Austrian general staff, in a dispatch coming by way of Berlin, reported a breakup of the Russian invasion in Hungary, and said that the Russian emperor's forces had been cleared from a portion of the Carpathians.

The Russians, in their turn, asserted that near the East Prussian frontier, in Rossen, Poland, they were still pressing the Germans hard, and at several points had gained successes over them.

While one morning newspaper in London has been informed on "good authority" that Antwerp has fallen, neither the British official press-bureau nor the Belgian minister are able to confirm the report. The last advices from Belgium had the Germans still hammering away with their artillery against Antwerp. One dispatch said 200 big German guns were in operation there, ostend advices reported thousands of refugees arriving in that city.

A Berlin dispatch says that King Albert of Belgium, who has been reported to have left Antwerp at the head of a portion of his troops, has been slightly wounded.

British aeroplanes again have visited Düsseldorf, Germany. A British official report says an aerial squadron succeeded in blowing up a Zeppelin airship shed in Düsseldorf and destroying a dirigible balloon in it. The three aviators engaged in the raid escaped, but lost their machines.

Austria has temporarily lifted the customs duties on corn, flour and vegetables.

Belgium has protested to the Washington government against Germany's alleged action in commandeering all food supplies in Brussels and "reducing the native population to famine."

It is believed in Washington that Captain Le Vert Coleman, who has been in Europe with the American relief commission, will be called upon by the war department to explain statements attributed to him in an interview in New York concerning the German army's fighting abilities and commissariat and alleged atrocities committed by the German troops.

KARLSRUHE COALED AT PORTO RICO FEW DAYS AGO

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—As late as a few days before October 4, the German cruiser Karlsruhe, which unconquered reports have said had been sunk or disabled by British warships, was coaling in San Juan, Porto Rico, according to statements made to passengers on the Brazilian ship Minas Gerais, which arrived here today from South American ports. The Minas Gerais put in at San Juan on October 4 on her voyage north. The Karlsruhe had taken on coal there a few days previous, the ship's passengers were informed.

COPPER PRODUCTION CURTAILED BY WAR

U. S. Urged to Demand That England Not Interfere
With Shipments Metal

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Senator Walsh of Montana suggested to the president today that Great Britain be requested to solicit guarantees from neutral nations that they would not permit consignments of American copper to get into the hands of belligerent nations. The state department is now seeking such guarantees from Norway and Sweden and Italy, but the senator believes England should do this.

"There is no reason why friendly nations should not continue trading in copper," the senator said. "Yet England has undertaken to interfere with all shipments of American copper to neutral nations. There is no extraordinary shipment of American copper and none of it is going to belligerent nations through neutral nations. The United States usually ships to Holland about 250,000 pounds of copper annually. From January 1 to June 1 of this year we shipped to Holland 900,000 pounds of copper and shipments to Holland since that time have been considerably less each month."

Operations Curtailed.
Senator Walsh said that operations in the western copper mines had been curtailed one-half on account of war conditions and that further curtailment would be necessary unless the export trade with neutral countries was maintained.

Acting Secretary Lansing and Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, discussed today the proposal to exempt from seizure American copper consigned to neutral European countries. Without disposing of this subject, the discussion turned upon the possibility of increasing the shipments of American cotton to Europe.

Demand Reduced.
The ambassador threw some light on the subject by pointing out that the war had greatly reduced the demand for cotton goods, so that the great Lancashire factories were closing up or running on a reduced scale. But the principal obstacle in the way of normal importations of American cotton he said, lay in the obligation upon Great Britain to consume, as far as possible, the Egyptian cotton crop, in order to prevent just such a depression in Egypt as now exists in the southern American states.

All of the great German and Austrian, and even French mills, are practically closed to the Egyptian product by the war, he added.

DEMOCRATS CLAIMING CREDIT FOR IMPROVED BUSINESS CONDITIONS

Will Make Use of This Alleged Fact in the Coming Campaign

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Business conditions throughout the country are improving, according to reports reaching President Wilson today, and Democratic speakers are to be instructed to dwell on this fact during the fall campaign in view of the expected charges by Republicans and Progressives that the new tariff has brought financial disaster.

The president was informed that many orders for American goods were being received from abroad, and that the first bad effects on American industry of the war had passed.

As part of the Democratic campaign, President Wilson probably will issue a statement when he signs the Clayton Antitrust bill, now before him, calling attention to the completion of the program of trust legislation started with the passage of the trade commission bill.

Mr. Wilson has declined also to accept an invitation to speak in Pittsburgh on October 24, on the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the Y. M. C. A. While he will not make a political speech, he will go at the invitation of Representative Palmer, candidate for senator and his appearance is planned to assist Mr. Palmer.

Bryan in Indiana.
INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 9.—William J. Bryan secretary of state accompanied by nearly 100 leaders of the Democratic party in Indiana, on a special train, began a two days speaking campaign of the state today. The secretary's tour will wind up with a rally here tomorrow night.

MONTENEGRINS SUFFER FROM MOUNTAIN COLD

ROME, Oct. 9.—A dispatch received here from Cetinje, Montenegro, says the troops are suffering severely, especially at night, owing to the cold. Snow already covers the peaks of the mountains.

Several detachments of Austrians, the dispatch adds, have been compelled to retire, unable to resist the terrible weather. Some of their sentinels were half frozen.

GERMAN WRITERS

CURSE OF NATION

Hardy Says Nietzsche Has Exercised Most Baneful
Influence

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Thomas Hardy, the author, writing of the destruction of the Rheims cathedral, says it must be irrefutably settled whether it was accidental or partly so. On this decision will depend whether or not German civilization is to be a byword forever.

If it was not accidental, Mr. Hardy says, "it will strongly suggest what a disastrous light upon the glory and nobility of a great nation has been wrought by the writings of Nietzsche and his followers, Treitschke, von Bernhardi and others."

Call Him Megalomanic.
I should think that there is no instance since history began of a country being so demoralized by a single writer, the irony being that he was a megalomaniac, and not truly a philosopher at all.

It puzzles one to understand how the more profound thinkers of Germany, and to some extent elsewhere, can have been so dazzled by this writer's bombastic poetry—for it is a sort of prose poetry—as to be blinded by the fallacy of his arguments. If they can be called arguments, which are off-hand as assumptions.

True Philosophers Elapsed.

"He postulates as to what life is on this earth have no resemblance to the reality, yet he and his school seem to have eclipsed for a time in Germany the classical wisdom of such men as Kant and Schopenhauer. It is rather laugh on the latter that their views should be swept into one net with those of Nietzsche, Treitschke, and the rest as German philosophy, as has been done by some English writers, when they really differ further in ethics than the humane philosophers mentioned differ in that from Christianity."

BRUSSELS FACING FAMINE; BELGIANS PROTEST TO U. S.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The Belgian minister today with the state department filed a protest from his government against the threatened famine in Brussels caused by the German army. The message from the Belgian foreign office and filed with the department.

"The civil authorities of the Brussels agglomeration inform the government that Brussels faces famine. Violating once more the rights of mankind, and, namely, Article 43 of the fourth convention of The Hague the German army, after having taken away from the population an important part of its resources, is going ready to let it starve. The same information is coming from Namur and Luxembourg."

The Belgian government protests with the utmost indignation against this revolting act of barbarism and brings it to the knowledge and the appreciation of the American nation. The Brussels agglomeration is the name given to the city proper and the surrounding suburbs, which are formed into one civil community.

INVESTIGATION OF OIL SITUATION IS BEGUN

Senate Orders Probe of Charges That Monopoly Is or Is About to Be Perfectured

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—An investigation into the production, transportation and marketing of crude petroleum was instituted today by the interstate commerce commission.

The action was taken in compliance with a resolution of the senate requesting the commission "to make a thorough investigation of the conditions prevailing and that have prevailed in the states of New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Oklahoma and Ohio or elsewhere," respecting oil production and trade, how to control and by whom the oil market is controlled. Financial inducements offered in the development of oil fields, the operation of pipe lines and whether the charge is out that substantially the same interests have operated the pipe lines, made the market bought the crude oil, refined it and fixed the price of the refined products.

The commission also is directed to ascertain whether any pipe line companies have recently stopped taking all or part of the crude oil produced by independent operators.

COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT IN MEXICO PROPOSED

Plan Would Restore Peace and End All Factional
Contentions

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—A commission form of government for Mexico until order is restored and the resumption of full constitutional functions by the people is possible has been suggested at the informal discussions at Aguascalientes preceding the former meeting between representatives of Carranza and Villa. This was reported to the state department here tonight and met with prompt recognition as a possible solution for the vexing problems of the southern republic.

The plan, it was believed, would eliminate the personal rivalry of various factional leaders and lead to early restoration of a strong central government with which the United States could deal in more direct fashion than is possible under present conditions in Mexico.

Precedent for Plan.
Details of the proposal were not received here so far as is known, but officials found somewhat of a parallel for the plan in the organization and powers of the Philippine commission. This thought it probable such a commission would at first be of a military nature largely, since its authority must be supported by the army; although it might later, through changes in the personnel, become entirely civil and provide an easy way for return to constitutional government.

Further reports of distress on the west coast of Mexico came tonight from Admiral Howard. Lack of food or of any central authority, he said, caused continual conflict between the people and the soldiers. The food shortage has been called to the attention of the American Red Cross and steps to relieve it probably will result.

Spaniards Arrested.

Protest to the state department was made today by the Spanish ambassador against the arrest of the Spanish consul at Mazatlan by Mexican officials. Other hostile actions against Spaniards in that region also were reported. The department has ordered an investigation by United States consular officials.

The Constitutionalist agency received notice today that General Aguilar, commanding forces against Vera Cruz, had issued a proclamation saying he was about to take possession of the city and would give full protection to aliens and Mexicans irrespective of political affiliations. The proclamation made no mention of the American forces, but declared "laws and regulations issued by the present government" will be enforced.

The battleship North Dakota sailed from Vera Cruz today conveying the 44th company of marines to Guantanamo before proceeding to Hampton Roads. The Rhode Island has arrived at Vera Cruz.

GOVERNMENT AID FOR THE COTTON CROP IS IMPOSSIBLE—M'ADOO

Market Cannot Be Retrieved
by Legislation, He Declares

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The plan for direct federal aid to cotton growers to the extent of $400,000,000 was the subject of sharp criticism in a letter to Representative Henry of Texas made public tonight by Secretary McAdoo. The letter is in reply to recent statements to the house by Mr. Henry.

Mr. McAdoo announced that the proposal to lend $250,000,000 of Panama canal bonds to bolster the cotton crop is not practicable, and he took exception generally to all the features of the Henry scheme. He called attention to the fact that those who deal in cotton, naval stores, copper, silver and other commodities have sought government aid.

Others Would Kick.

If we disregard every suffering interest except cotton," he said, "and make it the sole beneficiary of governmental favor, what happens of the Democratic principle of 'equal rights for all special privileges for none'?"

If we enter upon the course you suggest you must help every distressed industry impartially. To do that would necessitate the issue of many more than $400,000,000 in bonds and greenbacks. It would be a hopeless undertaking, in defiance of every sound principle of finance and economics, with certain disaster at the end.

Henry Has New Scheme.

Representative Henry introduced in the house today a compromise loan proposition presented in a bill framed last night by a conference of southern members of congress. It would reduce the proposed loan to $250,000,000. While Mr. McAdoo was writing his letter the committee of St. Louis jobbers and bankers headed by Fostus J. Ward was in conference with a committee of the federal reserve board over the proposed $150,000,000 cotton loan fund to take care of the surplus cotton crop. No decision was reached and the conference will be resumed tomorrow.

'ANTWERP FALLING,' SAYS LATE DISPATCH

Belgians City Is Officially Doomed

LONDON, Oct. 10.—(Saturday).—"Every sign indicates that Antwerp is falling," the Daily Chronicle's Antwerp correspondent says in a dispatch dated Friday. "It is possible the town will be surrendered."

"The main streets are deserted, but there are 20,000, mainly people on the quays and around the railroad station waiting to leave."

The town is in flames throughout the southern section, and no attempt is being made to quench them."

Stubbish Resistance, Is Doomed

LONDON, Oct. 10.—(Saturday).—"Stubborn resistance is succeeding before the Antwerp fortifications," says the Daily Mail's Ostend correspondent, telegraphing Friday.

"Four assaults have been repulsed at No. 4 fort at Viendictum. The bombardment of the town appears to be diminishing somewhat in intensity."

"According to the latest advice from Antwerp, which resulted in the capture of 3,000 Germans and forced the enemy to recross the river Neth, abandoning their guns at Linth."

Refugees Reach London.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—(Saturday).—Seven trains bringing refugees from Antwerp arrived here last night and were met by representatives of the war refugees committee. A majority of those who came in on the trains were of the well-to-do class and did not need assistance. The others, however, bore stern evidence of experience, though hard and ungodly.

An Antwerp real estate man who escaped on the last train leaving the beleaguered town, said "Fierce fighting was going on almost at our doors when we left. The noise of the big guns was like continuous thunder. Life in Antwerp has been done by bombs dropped from Zeppelin airships."

"For a fortnight it had been impossible to obtain a warm meal in the city. The town has been virtually in darkness for two months."

The refugees included a number of Belgian soldiers and a party of 40 Utrachite nuns.

Places Damaged.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The places in Antwerp which thus far have suffered the most severely in the bombardment of that city are the Southern station, the palace of justice, the Avenue de L'Industrie, and the quarters in the vicinity. This statement is made in a message from the Ostend correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company.

Communication Cut.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Railway and telegraphic communications between Berlin and Antwerp have been interrupted, says a wireless dispatch from the German capital. The message adds that the French consul at Antwerp has transferred the archives of the consulate to Rosendael, Holland.

NATIONAL TRADE ORGANIZATION IS CALLING ON BANKS TO COOPERATE WITH FARMERS

Will Place Great Responsibility on America. Says Letter Received Here, and Country's Farms Must Feed Many Nations

A letter containing information relative to the part Colorado Springs should play in the immediate resumption of industrial activity, together with several suggestions, was received yesterday by Secretary Henderson of the Chamber of Commerce from the National Implement and Vehicle Association in Chicago. The letter has been sent to 30,000 American bankers and trade agencies by the organization, which is composed of representative manufacturers and jobbers of agricultural implements and farm equipment. This industry, it writes, has brought its delegates into an intimate relation with agricultural conditions and a clear and accurate knowledge of general business conditions in the agricultural field.

"For some months before the European war general business conditions were in an unsatisfactory condition," continues the letter, "tariff changes, the new currency law, railroad rate decisions, proposed legislation affecting business, etc., all tended to make American business men hesitant. On top of this came the European war."

In this country one of the effects of that war was partial financial isolation. What is needed now is to restore confidence and to put the unemployed back on the pay roll. We believe that the American banker holds the key. He is the business adviser of commerce and in the rural community enjoys—and justly so—a position of special responsibility, trust and power, which we fully appreciate.

America to Feed Europe.

"The responsibility imposed on the American farmer by the war is tremendous. For this country will be called on as never before to help feed the nations of Europe."

The following suggestions were recommended for careful consideration:

1. Urge the farmer who has harvested his grain not to speculate on the fluctuation of future prices.

2. Encourage the farmer of the south to diversify his crops. Experience has shown that a one-crop country cannot continue to bring prosperity to its farmers. The great wheat states of the Dakotas are diversifying. Our cotton states should do likewise.

3. Discourage all speculation but encourage the expansion of legitimate business in the rural communities by reasonable extension of credit.

4. Secure for the agricultural community the benefits provided in the new currency law by creating a demand for the early opening of the various federal reserve banks.

5. Discourage all speculation but encourage the expansion of legitimate business in the rural communities by reasonable extension of credit.

ENGLAND PREPARING FOR LONG WAR, SAYS M'GARRY

British Will Not Get Into Conflict in Earnest Before Spring, in Opinion of Mining Man

According to Judge H. McGarry, vice president of the Golden Rule Mining company, who returned this week from abroad, England is preparing for a three-year war and will not get into the fight in earnest until next spring. Judge McGarry gathered this impression while in London, after he left Paris on his way home, and states that the English people seem to be taking the situation philosophically.

"Before peace is declared," says Judge McGarry, "the Krupp concern at Essen will be forever dismantled and put out of business, and Germany will be turned into a republic. Next summer England will have 2,000,000 trained men ready to add to her forces at present in the field, and the offensive warfare will begin. More than 1,000,000 men are in the various training camps of the British Isles at present, and as fast as they are ready for service they are being sent across the channel. However, the British are not sending raw recruits to be sacrificed because of inefficiency."

Judge and Mrs. McGarry were in Paris until the week that the Germans approached close to the city. They left with the general exodus of citizens.

New Fire and Police Pension Measure Up for Consideration

An ordinance amending the fire and police pension fund ordinance was introduced at the meeting of the city council yesterday morning by Commissioner D. G. Johnson of the department of public safety. The new ordinance was read and, on motion of Commissioner Johnson, was referred to the committee of the whole.

Under the provisions of the new ordinance, not more than $100 may be expended for funeral expenses of any member of the department who is killed or who dies from injuries sustained in the discharge of his duties. In the police department it provides for $1 per day sick benefit for officers who are laid off on half pay while sick. If the sickness continues for more than 90 days, the pension is to equal one-half. The widow is to receive $20 a month until remarried. Children under 16 receive $5 a week until they are 18 years of age. Provision also is made for injury benefits equal to the monthly salary.

The park commission was authorized to enter into a contract with John Stevenson, of Monument Creek in Monument Valley park at an approximate cost of $2,200.

SENATOR PATTERSON:

When you ask the people of El Paso county tonight for their support will you please Tell them what difference there is between Julius Aichele, "the grafter," as you have styled him, and Julius Aichele, your candidate for the state senate?

Is Tom Hyde a better man to represent the people of Denver in the house of representatives now than he was as a Speer henchman when you called him every objectionable name in the category?

If Rody Kenenah accepted bribe money from the Gas Company of Denver, as you have charged, why are you associating with him on the Democratic state ticket today?

If Senator Thomas was an enemy of the Colorado sugar industry last fall, is he not an enemy of the same industry today?

Why are you trying to be elected governor on your support of the present local option law when on March 20th, 1907, you said of that law editorially: "Under these circumstances it is not too much to say that the only thing the law has accomplished is the regulation of the drug store liquor traffic to set a premium on perjury and to make the dry towns good places for the unscrupulous quacks to ply their profession?"

Why, as a candidate for political honor, are you now sleeping in the same bed with men whom you, as a private citizen, have often charged with being fit subjects for the penitentiary?

Incidentally, why did you cast your vote in the United States Senate to give the waters of the San Luis Valley to Old Mexico?

Thanks Merchants for Backing Fair

Various matters of interest to the retail merchants of the city were considered at the regular monthly meeting held last evening at dinner at the Acacia hotel. The committee on auctioneers and transient merchants made a report and was authorized to continue its work. The following letter from Chairman J. J. Eubank of the agricultural committee of the Chamber of Commerce, to L. J. Newsome, chairman of the merchants' division, was read:

"On behalf of the agricultural committee and the board of directors of the Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce, we want to express, through you, to the members of the merchants' division of the Chamber of Commerce, the appreciation which we feel toward the merchants of the city for the generous cooperation and assistance rendered in making the Central Colorado exposition and the Boys' and Girls' clubs camp a success. We feel that this movement is and will continue to be of great importance in the development of the community, and particularly in bringing into closer relationship the farmers and the business men. The merchants responded splendidly to the call issued by your division for premiums and for services and other cooperation in connection with the exposition. Will you kindly let the members of your division know that the Chamber of Commerce as a whole appreciates the cooperation extended by them as individuals and as an organization in carrying forth this important work."

If You Lost Your Luggage in Europe Tell Wells-Fargo

More than 2,000 trunks and suit cases left in Europe at the outbreak of the war by fleeing Americans, have been discovered by the representatives of the Wells-Fargo Express company, according to word received here yesterday by C. W. Cowan, local agent. Arrangements were made by Vice President Holbrook at the beginning of the struggle to bring to the United States a portion of the vast amount of baggage left behind on the continent by those who were forced to come home. E. P. Gaston, who was familiar with European traffic conditions, was employed by the company and sent to Germany.

According to a cable received by the European manager of the company, a large amount has been recovered, Gaston having arrived in Rotterdam with the first consignment of 2,000 pieces which were found in Bremen, Hamburg and other German cities. Other consignments will be received later.

Colorado Springs people who left their belongings behind are requested to communicate with the local office, and the matter of recovering their baggage will be taken up at once with the New York office.

URGING BETTER ROADS TO AGRICULTURAL DISTRICTS

Improved Highways Around Colorado Springs Will Facilitate Transportation of Farm Products

With a view to solving the problem of better relations between farmer and consumer, the Chamber of Commerce has been striving to better the transportation facilities to and from the country districts. The Farmers' Truck and Transportation company is the outgrowth of an idea that originated with the agricultural committee, and the association has been working for a better road movement. As the result the farmers who live off the line of railroads are enabled to market their produce in Colorado Springs, instead of letting it go to waste. The road work by the county commissioners has greatly facilitated this movement. The Chamber of Commerce is also making an effort to encourage the extension of telephones in the rural districts. The question of mail service between eastern Colorado and this city has received attention by the committee and postmaster.

A great deal of progress has been made in this direction in the last few years, according to Secretary A. W. Henderson. The work of the county commissioners has encouraged the farmers to grow their produce in the right way, and the work of the committee, transportation company, postmaster and others has offered them a market for their crops. The farmers' clubs have been a help with discussions and lectures. Most of the country roads are in excellent condition.

STALLINGS' TEAM NEVER FALTERS; HAS OPPONENTS AT MERCY FROM FIRST; PLANK VS. JAMES FOR TODAY

Betting Odds Switch to Braves and Public Is Astonished at Play; Rudolph's Hurling Too Clever at Almost All Times for Macks

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—The dopesters were busy tonight figuring out a way whereby the Athletics would even up the series tomorrow and although the experts see a chance for reversal, the entire possibility of a Mack win depend upon the pitching power of Stallings' selection. It was announced tonight that Eddie Plank, the veteran crossfire artist, whose two victories last year over the Giants were the talk of the baseball world, would be Mack's selection. James, the speedy right-hander of the Braves, will be Stallings' selection. James has a particularly effective slow ball which he probably will use.

Indications at midnight were that the weather for the second game of the series would be fair.

Ninety and players in real college football manner.

They had every reason to be elated for analyzed from the angle of cold figures the opening victory of the world's series of 1914 shows that the National league representatives were superior, both collectively and individually, in each department of the game except fielding, where two errors were charged against the Braves, while a single misplay marred the work of the Athletics. The victors scored seven runs, 11 hits and two errors to the loser's one run, five hits and no errors. Rudolph's fast and accurate ball and walked three. Under attack on three and gave two hits on balls, while Wyckoff, who relieved him, fanned two and walked one. In the third and second innings heavy hitting honors went to the Boston batters, who totaled 16 bases with 11 hits to the Athletics' seven on five hits.

DETROIT'S RETIREMENT IN 1-2 IN ANY WORLD'S SERIES

United in Detroit's series, the National champions have won bravely in their initial contest and in winning, established a new record for with their bats they drove Chief Bender, the Athletics' surest in any pitcher, to the bench, a feat no other club ever achieved against one of Connie Mack's twirlers in a world's series.

DETAILED PLAY OF GAME SHOWS BRAVES HAVE GREAT HITTING POWER

The players of both teams were on the field before 1 o'clock, with the exception of "Chief" Bender who did not emerge from the Athletics' dugout until 15 minutes before the game started. He warmed up slowly, swinging occasionally to oblige a photographer by posing for pictures. After the usual prolonged conference of the umpires, and Captain Evers and Thomas play was called at 1:05 p.m. Moran of Boston, the first man up in Bender's opening pitch got for a strike. The second pitch was a foul, and he then sent up another foul fly to McInnis, and the Athletics cheered. Captain Evers was given a hand by the crowd as he stepped to the plate and shot a high fly to Collins, who had to step backward to get it. Connolly the heavy-hitting outfielder, was next up. He took a strike, and after fouling off another misread Bender's next offering and the side was out.

TWO ON AND BARRY AT BAT, BUT HE FOUTER OUT

Eddie Murphy, for the Athletics, also let the first ball pitched by Rudolph go for a strike, but he leaped the second to center field. Oldring laid down a sacrifice in front of the plate and Gowdy made a high throw to first which Schmidt got after a fine effort and put his foot on first base for the out. Murphy taking second. Eddie Collins waited while Rudolph pitched three bad balls and eventually got a pass to first. Then up came "Home-run" Baker. The crowd cheered the slugger and then groaned when he sent a high foul to Schmidt. Murphy on the out, tried for third, but a beautiful throw by Schmidt to Deal nailed him, thus completing a double play and ending the inning.

Whitted for Boston, in the second inning was given a base on balls by Bender. After Schmidt had lifted a fly to Oldring, Gowdy came to him with a vicious two-base drive to left center field, and Whitted rushed at their third run together in the fifth inning. The dangerous Gowdy opened with a terrific smash to left center field for three bases, to the great joy of the Boston supporters, and came home when Maranville dropped a single back of first base. Deal here hit into his second double play in an attempt to sacrifice. He bunted a little fly into Bender's waiting hands and the chief caught Wyckoff trying to get back to first. McInnis taking the throw. Rudolph struck out.

For the Athletics in the fifth Barry flied to Maranville, who made a hard run to get up to the ball in left field. Schang went out on strikes and Bender sent a long fly to Whitted in center field.

WYCKOFF RUSHED TO RESCUE OF THE ATHLETICS

Wyckoff who had been warming up for two innings, was then called into the game, and the big Indian slowly walked off the field. The young pitcher gave Gowdy a base on balls. Maranville hit sharply to Wyckoff, who threw to Baker to head off Schmidt, but the leave was too late and all runners were safe. With the bases full, Deal tried hard to clear them, but the beat he could do was to hit into another double play. Baker scooped up his grounder and after touching third, forcing Gowdy, he threw Deal out at first. Wyckoff was given a hand for stopping the run making.

FOUR FEDERAL CLUBS LOSE MONEY DURING THE SEASON

St. Louis Dropped $45,000; Other Teams Made Money; "Will Force O. B. to Recognize Us"—Gilmore

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9.—The Federal league baseball clubs of Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, Kansas City and St. Louis lost money during the season now ending.

This is the statement attributed to James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal league, by newspaper men here tonight. Gilmore came here today to attend a meeting of the stockholders of the local club, and departed early tonight. He is further quoted as saying:

"The St. Louis club lost $45,000 exclusive of its holdings. This was the biggest loss sustained in the league. Chicago, Buffalo, Baltimore and Indianapolis all show a balance on the right side of the ledger."

Gilmore denied rumors that the chief stockholders of the local club contemplated selling their stock, or that the franchise of the St. Louis club would be transferred to another club. "As to organized ball," he said, "we are not begging its recognition. We want it."

"My Boys Won on Their Merits," Says George Stallings; Hitting of Braves Is What Astonished Philadelphia Fans

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—Bender appeared unusually weak today against the Braves, and once they had seen his offerings, they took liberties with the Indian's delivery that astonished the thousands of Athletic supporters who thronged the stands. Sizzling singles, doubles and triples rang off their bats, flashing over or through the infield until at last Connie Mack signaled the chief to give way to Wyckoff, and thus broke the record of never having removed a pitcher from a world's series. Combs withdrawal from the box in the 1911 series against the Giants was due to an injury, and not to any faltering in his pitching.

After the contest, Manager Mack said that Bender did not seem to be right, and that he had little or nothing on the ball. Mack pointed out that the Athletics did little work with the stick themselves, and said that, while he looked forward to a hard series, he and his players were not a bit discouraged. He was asked if he thought his club would hit any better against the other

WYCKOFF HAD DOUBLE, BUT HE LOST ON B-4

Wyckoff sprang a surprise on Rudolph in the Athletics' half of the eighth by smacking a two-bagger to the right field wall. He took third on Murphy's out. Maranville to Schmidt, and was left there as Oldring struck out and Collins flied to Connolly. Boston went out in the ninth on grounds. Deal was out, Waker to McInnis. Rudolph, who was generously applauded by the crowd for the first game he pitched, was retired, Barry to McInnis, and Moran ended the inning. Baker to McInnis.

GUNBOAT SMITH BEATEN BY BAILING LEVINSKY IN 10

Outweighed 10 Pounds, Jaw Scraper Blackie Gunner's Smashes; Wades In and Outfights Him

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Battling Levinsky of this city outpointed and outfought Gunboat Smith of California in a 10-round bout here tonight. Levinsky weighed 172 1/2 lbs., Smith was 10 pounds heavier. Smith did all the leading in the first four rounds in each of which he had a fair margin. The fifth round was even, but from the sixth on, Levinsky had it all his own way. In the early rounds Levinsky made no attempt at leading. He avoided several of the gunner's rushes and contented himself with blocking cleverly and sidestepping. He hardly used his right in these rounds, and depended on left hooks and uppercuts. Both men were severely punished about the body. Levinsky woke up in the sixth and waded into the gunner with rights and lefts to the body. Smith landed occasionally, but Levinsky had all the better of it, rushing Gunboat hard toward the end.

FOUR FEDERAL CLUBS LOSE MONEY DURING THE SEASON

St. Louis Dropped $45,000; Other Teams Made Money; "Will Force O. B. to Recognize Us"—Gilmore

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9.—The Federal league baseball clubs of Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, Kansas City and St. Louis lost money during the season now ending.

This is the statement attributed to James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal league, by newspaper men here tonight. Gilmore came here today to attend a meeting of the stockholders of the local club, and departed early tonight. He is further quoted as saying:

"The St. Louis club lost $45,000 exclusive of its holdings. This was the biggest loss sustained in the league. Chicago, Buffalo, Baltimore and Indianapolis all show a balance on the right side of the ledger."

Gilmore denied rumors that the chief stockholders of the local club contemplated selling their stock, or that the franchise of the St. Louis club would be transferred to another club. "As to organized ball," he said, "we are not begging its recognition. We want it."

TERRORS VS. SACRED HEART, DENVER, TODAY

Locals Expect Hardest Game With Catholics; H. S. in Good Shape

The Lineup

Terrors	Sacred Heart
Ahl, c	McGinnis
Richardson, rf	Flanagan
Bowen, lf	Cullinane
Clough, 1b	Regan
Kirton, 2b	King
Landerholm, 3b	Katterman
Laughlin, ss	Dorbin
O. Richardson, 1b	Smith
Clark, c	Burnett
Gray (Capt)	Gray

The Terrors make their first out-of-town stand today, meeting the heavy and speedy Sacred Heart college team in Denver this afternoon. A speedy scrimmage practice last night completed the training for the battle, and Coach Condit expressed himself as being satisfied with the physical condition of his men, but somewhat doubtful as to the chances of victory.

"The Sacred Heart team is one of the best in the state," he said, "and if we win we will have a good chance for the state intercollegiate championship." Sixteen men will make the trip, leaving this morning.

The changes in the Terror lineup have been effective. The line has been strengthened by the addition of Bowen, a veteran player. The backfield has gained weight and speed by the addition of Clark at fullback. Vaughn probably will start the game at quarterback. The forward pass, with O. Richardson on the throwing end, will be a factor in today's play.

RIG GAMES TODAY IN WESTERN FOOTBALL

Indiana vs. Illinois; Chicago vs. Northwestern; Michigan vs. Vanderbilt

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Leading football games in the central states on the schedules for tomorrow, with last year's scores include:

At Chicago—Northwestern (0) vs. Chicago (14).
At Urbana—Indiana (0) vs. Illinois (0).
At Ann Arbor—Vanderbilt (2) vs. Michigan (37).
At Lafayette—Western Reserve vs. Purdue.
At Minneapolis—Ames (0) vs. Minnesota (28).
At Columbia—William Jewell vs. Missouri.
At Lincoln—South Dakota vs. Nebraska.
At Notre Dame—Roose Polytechnic vs. Notre Dame.
At Iowa City—Cornell (0) vs. Iowa (36).
At Madison—Marquette (0) vs. Wisconsin (33).
At Des Moines—Grinnell (0) vs. Drake (20).
At Cleveland—Ohio State (13) vs. Case (0).
At Delaware—Cincinnati (44) vs. Ohio Wesleyan (0).
At St. Louis—Haskell (39) vs. Christian Brothers (10).
At St. Louis—Illinois Normal vs. St. Louis.
At Manhattan—Kansas Normal vs. Kansas Aggies.
At Lawrence—Emporia vs. Kansas Aggies (37).
At Lima—Alma (0) vs. Michigan Aggies (37).

Two intercollegiate clashes in the Big Nine and the annual battle between Michigan and Vanderbilt provide the chief features in tomorrow's football card in this part of the country. Other contests will serve as tests, in some cases, of the development of the leading eleven, Minnesota taking on a worthy exponent probably in Ames, and Ohio meeting an improved squad in Case.

Dear and Blind Team Wallops Colorado City

In the first match game of the season's schedule, the football team of the Deaf and Blind school defeated Colorado City high school on the Institute grounds yesterday afternoon. The one-sided score of 37 to 6 represents nothing of the relative strength of the two teams, each side taking quick advantage of early season flukes, and the deaf boys having the edge of the luck. The feature of the game was the speedy open field running of Joe and Charlie Allen of the Institute back field. A return game on the Colorado City field is to be played in about two weeks. Colorado City's next game will be with Victor high school at Colorado City next Saturday.

Packers Play Pueblo Amateurs Tomorrow P. M.

The base ball season isn't over, after all. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at Zoo park the Packers will play the Mitchell of Pueblo for a series of inter-city amateur championship. The Mitchell are managed by Fred Dixon, a well-known Pueblo sportsman.

The Packers will line up as follows: The Fuller of Green, 2b. Fowler 1b. Deal, p. E. Miller, 1b. Brazier, ss. Fred, 2b. E. Miller, 1b. Brazier, ss.

STALLINGS HAS A PUNCH; PHILLYICEMAN KNOWS IT

Militant Brave Leader Smashes Anxious Better on the Jaw, Victim Swears Vengeance

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—Manager Stallings of the Braves got into an altercation with an ice man who wanted to place a bet on the Athletics in the lobby of a hotel here this noon shortly before the game and the ice man was handed a stinging blow on the jaw. At this juncture other members of the Boston team interfered and hustled their manager into an elevator. The ice man left the hotel vowing vengeance on Stallings.

UTAH VS. WYOMING TODAY IS FIRST OF CONFERENCE SERIES

All Other Teams Resting to Get in Shape for Hard Schedules

With the football season scarcely started, gridiron enthusiasts are awaiting with interest the outcome of the games scheduled for today on the Rocky Mountain equator, which are to secure figures upon which to base estimates of the relative strength of the different teams.

Today's conference games are limited to games between the University of Utah and the University of Wyoming at Salt Lake City and Denver University vs. Alumni at Denver. The Colorado School of Mines team will also play the scrubs at Golden. The Utah game will supersede the others in interest since both teams are considered strong and both will figure in late season contests.

Quiet at Colorado College. The Tigers will scrimmage with the freshmen this afternoon, about 3 o'clock on Washburn field. Last night Coach Rothbar appeared in uniform and gave his players a three-hour signal drill. No injuries have been reported in the squad.

The decisive victory of the state university team Saturday over a picked combination of former varsity stars has created much enthusiasm at Boulder. A scarcity of substitutes, however, has given rise to the fear that the whupping of the heavy schedule may find the team somewhat weakened. Coach Polson is now devoting his attention to strengthening the line and is doing considerable switching in practice.

The Denver university team, with brow to spare, made a poor showing last week in the game with Sacred Heart college. The Minsters have plenty of good new material this year, it is said, but Coach Buckingham has not yet announced his selections. A strong alumni team will try for honors with the undergraduates today.

STIFF GAMES TODAY FOR HARVARD, YALE, PRINCETON

W. & J. Expects to Floor Brickley Penn May Fall Before Lafayette

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—On the eastern football fields, Harvard, the intercollegiate championship holder, faces the Washington and Jefferson team today and the invaders are believed to be cherishing the idea that the overthrow of the Crimson eleven is not beyond their strength. In Spiegel, Fleming, Young and Goodwin, Washington and Jefferson has a veteran backfield which is both fast and versatile in attack and defense.

Cornell, with two defeats already marked up against her, faces the Carlisle Indians. Last season the redmen won from the Ithaca eleven, 7 to 0, but the aborigines have not as yet shown form equal to that of 1913.

Another conqueror of Cornell, the University of Pittsburgh, will play against the Navy. Like Washington and Jefferson, the Pittsburgh team included a number of veterans, members of the 1913 eleven which defeated Cornell, Carlisle and Lafayette and held the Navy to a no-score tie.

The Yale-Lehigh game at New Haven is expected to develop a closer contest than a year ago when the visitors lost 37 to 0.

Much the same conditions prevail at Princeton where Syracuse will oppose the Tigers. The Salt City team forced Princeton to play a tie every minute of the game a year ago to win, 13 to 0. Syracuse has a team both speed and power against Hart and Hamilton scoring its points against these two centers but Princeton is a different proposition.

Other games expected to produce fast hard play and close scores include the Army-Rutgers, Amherst-Brown, Pennsylvania-Lafayette and Bucknell-Swarthmore struggles.

WHAT THE CHURCH FOLK ARE THINKING

(FOUR) AND DOING

Sunday School (1914) and Young People's Tapes

A GREAT MEMORIAL

The International Sunday School Lesson for October 11 is "The Last Supper."—Mark 14:12-25.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS.

Painter and poet and preacher have seen great pictures of this little company of men gathered in an upper room for a Jewish feast, that was later turned into a memorial supper for the "who was about to leave them to go on or brush off voice has ever been able—perhaps the task is impossible—to picture that same supper as has been repeated countless times around the whole world, under conditions scarcely to be imagined. This is one of the tremendous institutions of civilization. It is vitally associated with the deepest experiences of the human soul.

The Feast of All Races.

In my own limited experience I recall having kept this memorial feast in many places, and in many unusual circumstances. I have knelt in the early morning on a historic battlefield with a company of men in uniform, and received the bread and wine from the regimental chaplain. While a storm raged at sea, I have knelt aboard ship clutching a support the while shrouded in the same sacrament with travelers from many lands. In great assemblies when leadership in learning and piety and wealth from the whole world were missed, I have been filled by the sacrament of fellowship. It is not the more so than when I have taken of it in crude village churches. I recall sacramental services in Indian Chinese chapels; with dusky Indian disciples under the shadow of the Taj Mahal; with a great body of Egyptian students in a church far up the Nile; and with fellow Japanese Christians in their pew churches, where the whole worshipping company sat on the floor.

The human imagination has been fed by the recent spectacle of great masses of soldiers, who were going to battle gathered to partake of the communion. Similarly, a strange solemnity is attached to the administration of the sacrament on battlefields before action. The long and immemorial processions of celebrations of the Lord's supper by all races and ages of people in every imaginable condition of stress and need, met to take with their Lord of this last supper, which he instituted on the night before he went forth to die, in tremendous theme for contemplation.

He That is About to Die.

The setting of this lesson could not be more dramatic. In remote, back-woods and the three years of public ministry of Jesus, with all the antagonisms which his utterance had kindled. The new background was Jewish Palestine. As true Jews, Jesus and his disciples kept that feast in ceremonial fashion.

A large upper room in the home of some Jerusalem friends had been selected for the occasion; and the tenor of imagination of Christendom turns to that room, where were taken those loving farewells of Jesus, which have echoed as words of comfort through all the centuries since.

The full company of 12 were present with their master for the Passover. Then Judas withdrew to do his deed of avarice. It seemed as a pall were lifted from the company when this traitor was removed. Then it was that Jesus opened his heart, and in tenor, most human and comradely-like, he instituted the last supper, a feast which Judas never shared.

The "who could hardly be simpler, the common flat cakes of bread, broken by the hand of the host, and a common wine shared by all, were the only elements used.

"And as they were eating, he took bread, and when he had blessed, he broke it, and gave to them, and said, 'Take ye: this is my body.' And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them; and they all drank of it. And he said unto them, 'This is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many. Verily I say unto you, I shall no more drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in a kingdom of God.'"

"I eat We Forget."

Every generation of the world over is a keen of the universal human desire to remember after death. All the past centuries have seen a few decades are crowded with the same agonies. This desire is instinctive and rightly so, for it is an impulse to divest the hungry human heart of the past, and share this natural impulse, to avoid to abide in the memory of a friends. His words at the last supper might be translated into common phrase, "Think of me when I am gone." This was a memorial supper, of all. "This do in remembrance of me." Every time the Lord's supper is spread, it says, "Remember Jesus Christ." We know that the Christian life flourishes only to the degree that Jesus abides vividly within.

The Old Era's End.

The climax had come. This was the hour of remembering. It was the time that Jesus ever ate at a formal meal with his disciples. He made this a ceremonial ending of the old order and relationships. Henceforth he could no longer have a companion in flesh. His earthly work was over. He was laid to rest to the people had been taken words: there remained only the institution for the fellowship to be offered in this room to the men who had leaned upon him, learned of him, loved him, and partaken of his personality.

Thenceforth Jesus was to be all this, and more, to his friends, but only in a spiritual sense. As this new supper was instituted, they were henceforth to be partakers of his life and to be sustained by the spirit. The Lord's supper is the abiding token of Christ's presence in the hearts of his people.

"In my experience as a nurse, I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a great medicine. I wish all women with female troubles would take it. I took it when passing through the Change of Life with all its results and I always regretted not taking the Compound to all my patients if I know of their condition in time. ## Churches Preparing Practical Plans for Promoting Permanent Peace

Swinging Rows of Machinery Into Action to Mold Men's Minds—A Christian Endeavor Peace Union, Neighborhood Mass Meetings, a Peace Ministry to Germany, and Special Services, the Program—Advised to Gals Pastoring the President

BY THE ALLIGIOUS RABBITER

Within the past few weeks, and especially since the full force of the president's proclamation for a Day of Prayer for Peace, has been realized, Christian leaders have begun to find themselves with respect to the part that the church must bear to peace. Practical plans are now being formulated for carrying out the president's plan.

At first there was a rush to Washington to propose to the president's plan. Then it began to be realized that the administration is as deeply committed as anybody to the cause of peace, and that it is unnecessary for the church to propose anything. The church's duty is to do what it can to help the president's plan.

The church possesses the greatest machinery for shaping public opinion. It has shown a disposition to do this power upon current questions. The church's duty is to do what it can to help the president's plan. The church's duty is to do what it can to help the president's plan.

strength. Cultivate hopefulness, devotion and self-sacrifice.

Among the peace societies which have begun to assume an extraordinary activity, the Christian Endeavor Peace Union has been foremost. It is a union of Christian Endeavor societies, and its purpose is to promote peace.

A Christian Endeavor Peace Union. The international religious organizations have been quick to see the situation. The Christian Endeavor society, which has millions of members scattered all over the world, has taken the first definite and formidable action by proposing a Christian Endeavor Peace Union.

The Christian Endeavor society and its branches are now working for peace. They are holding meetings, and they are doing everything they can to help the president's plan.

Big Bodies in Action. From the first, the Federal Council of Churches has been alert and active in its work for peace. It was quick to see the situation, and it has been doing everything it can to help the president's plan.

The committee of reference and counsel of the Federal Council of Churches of North America has issued a well-balanced and authoritative call to the churches, from its step-by-step plan for the supreme international agreement between Christianendom, the practical recommendations are summarized by the "Congregationalist."

POSITIVELY MASTERS GROUP. Foley's Honey and Tar compound cuts the thick, choking mucus and clears away the phlegm. Opens up the air passages and stops the hoarse cough. The gasping, straining fight for breath gives way to quiet breathing and peaceful sleep. Harold Bore, Mass. Mich. writes: "We give Foley's Honey and Tar to our children for colds and it always acts quickly." No wonder a man in Texas walked 15 miles to the store to get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Every user is a friend. Robinson Drug Co. Adv.

ANTWERP HOSPITAL STRUCK BY SHELLS

LONDON, Oct. 9.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Rotterdam, Holland, dated Thursday evening, says: "Severe fighting is proceeding outside of Antwerp. I am informed that shrapnel struck the Erasmus hospital in Pontine street, breaking many windows. In Turnhout and its vicinity many houses have been destroyed. It is reported here that the Germans have been compelled to retreat for a short distance. A number of British nurses arrived at Brussels, Holland, from London, near Malines, where their convent was destroyed by the German fire, although they were nursing there. It is said, hundreds of wounded."

CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Wheat that advancing prices had checked European demand resulted today in a downward swing for wheat. The market closed nervous, 40¢ to 45¢ lower last night. Corn lost 1¢ to 1 1/2¢ net, and oats 1/2¢ to 3/4¢. In previous, the outcome varied from 20¢ decline to a rise of 2 1/2¢.

Buying supposed to be on foreign account. Wheat market had taken an early dip, the effect of rather heavy sales by a leading house, but the ensuing bulge appeared to leave quotations without support. Bearish sentiment was increased by announcement that exports from North America for the week had been nearly 2,000,000 bushels less than during the previous seven days.

Predictions of a decreased movement of wheat from that country, especially in the north-west, were freely made.

Corn sagged with wheat. Wet weather had only a temporary influence in favor of the bulls. Besides, eastern cash call was slow, and a flat market resulted. The market was quiet. The first new corn, 2 1/2¢, was not yet in. The market was quiet. The first new corn, 2 1/2¢, was not yet in.

Holders of provisions took advantage of higher prices for hogs and sold a liberal amount of selling, mostly the January options. The markets were good for the nearby deliveries of hogs.
